our vineyards that are in bloom."

BANNED FROM YOUTUBE

INTRODUCTION:

I was never told exactly why my YouTube account was terminated. I was only told in some cheap message that I had violated the rules. But I don't really care why. It means nothing to me. Besides it has made me compile these comments. Exposing YouTube for unfair censorship is good enough for me. There may be many reasons. There is a dead body, and lots of clues, but this book has no answers as to why exactly I was banished. Please do not harass or hurt the worthless people at YouTube. It's not worth it. Nothing lasts forever. All things end. YouTube itself will one day face a sad and/or scandalous closure.

This collection is a short history of my activities and commentary on YouTube. I am not exactly proud of all the materials contained herein as certain pieces are harsh and crude and rude and serve very little constructive purpose.

Some comments collected here may appear more than once. My apologies for any such annoyances. I did not have a proof reader, nor the energy to double-check the manuscript as much as I would have liked. It was enough trouble rescuing the comments from my cellphone, accessing and copy-pasting them into the book, then editing out the extra symbols that accompanied the transferred text.

This collection is incomplete, as some comments I might have included have been lost. Only YouTube itself has the full record of all of my activities there. I am not releasing this work because I think it's important, it exists as a mere record some people might find interesting. It exists because it is different, (and I like different), and I believe the comments were worth preserving and sharing.

Some YouTube Users will no doubt be happy to learn I am gone from that site, kicked off, banned from ever commenting again, and that I will no longer be around to expose or insult them, and to this I can only say: if the shoe fits shove it up your ass.

RELIGION:

(or the bullshit YouTube Rapture-Lemming Community hates me, and more)

NOTE: To those who predict the return of Jesus on specific dates, God is liar, and they can indeed learn the date, but their failures proves they are liars. I spent a lot of time following the Christian Pig Failures and commenting on their lack of success. Sometimes I even counted down to midnight on Rapture Days, and called them idiots (or worse) when nothing whatsoever happened. I expected nothing to happen anyway...

NOTE: The resurrection of the dead and the taking up of the living...

"Even so, when you see all these things, you know that it is near, right at the door. Truly I tell you, this generation will certainly not pass away until all these things have happened. Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will never pass away. But about that day or hour no one knows, not even the angels in heaven, nor the Son, but only the Father. As it was in the days of Noah, so it will be at the coming of the Son of Man. For in the days before the flood, people were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, up to the day Noah entered the ark; and they knew nothing about what would happen until the flood came and took them all away. That is how it will be at the coming of the Son of Man. Two men will be in the field; one will be taken and the other left. Two women will be grinding with a hand mill; one will be taken and the other left. Therefore keep watch, because you do not know on what day your Lord will come."

"And you will be hated by all nations because of me. At that time many will turn away from the faith and will betray and hate each other, and many false prophets will appear and deceive many people"

[YouTube is a breeding ground for false prophets]

Note: Sometimes when I came across some video that implied some catastrophe that might occur based on existing natural existing verifiable phenomena like someone ranting insanely about the Yellowstone super-volcano exploding and wiping out half of America (as in we all all will wake up one fine morning dead), or some space meteor that recently grazed the earth by several million miles (and there are still yet more earth-killers out there with a great hunger to smash earth like a hammer and they can appear quickly without much warning) I would post this...

"None of this means any of you fucking insane assholes out there are genuine prophets, so eat shit out of each others butts with silver spoons, you stupid dumb-fucks"

NOTE: Uh, yeah, mean and acidic. Yes. I admit it. But bullshit makes me angry and trying to reason with lunatics hell-bent on standing outside their homes dressed in white robes and raising their hands to the sky waiting for that great hallelujah moment is pretty much a waste of time. So I turn to insult, because well, I'm a vulgarian. My mother had a filthy mouth. One day I asked her for some money. Her response was, "Shall I go out on the street and sell my ass?" I was shocked but I got the point. Fuck off child. So I was raised by people that used foul language as a weapon. Among her worst offenses was, "God, why did you give me such stupid children?" There is still no excuse really for cursing, I myself didn't curse for many years for religious reasons. Then I started again. The anger would pile up when things would go wrong, like some Sunday school teacher refusing to let me go to the restroom until his lesson was over. Things like that add up and help grow hatred in one's heart"

"Deut. 18:22. When a prophet speaks in the name of the LORD, if the word does not come to pass or come true, that is a word that the LORD has not spoken; the prophet has spoken it presumptuously. You need not be afraid of him"

NOTE: Often, if people were really happy the world was coming to an end, I would post this rebuke signifying their ultimate selfishness...

"God take us to heaven and to hell with everyone else."

NOTE: I had a family member that would often say, "God bless me and fuck everybody else." Which is not a nice thing to say, nor is it a proper Christian sentiment. Which brings me to the next point: no this not a case of WWJD (What Would Jesus Do?) many of these comments are my own creation and come from my own heart, after having been made aware of bible sayings, and meditated on them for many years. Bad language is not the best way of expressing criticism nor religious sentiment, there are better, softer, nicer, calmer ways which I have indeed used, just in smaller doses. Being nice to Christian Pigs does not stop them from lying about God. Neither do insults. It's just that insulting makes me feel better to be honest.

THE STRANGE AND SHITTY CASE OF CHRISTIAN-PIG, RAPTURE-LEMMING, AND OVERALL WORTHLESS-DOG AND SELF-PROCLAIMED PROPHET STEVE FLETCHER THE 50-PLUS FAILURE

"Christianity itself says the spirit of God inside a Christian tugs on the conscience causing guilt when someone commits a sin. The continuous never-ending rapture-lying is proof the spirit of God is not in these people"

NOTE: I'll bet this is the real reason YouTube threw me out of the dance hall. There is this stupid moron Steve Fletcher who has predicted the return of Jesus and/OR THE END OF THE WORLD AND failed over 50 times. He's a smug arrogant motherfucker that rolls with two other filthy stupid cockroaches who call themselves Gigi {Blue Heaven) and John B. (Watchman for that Great Day a.k.a. John Bullshit). I have asked all three to Castrate themselves upon failure of their predictions and never got an affirmative response. They call themselves prophets and imply God speaks to them but none are willing to go as far as to prove that are what they claim to be, and the reason is obvious, they are all lying pieces of shit. I've also asked them to please kill themselves (if castration is not an option) but they have never obliged. They even go as far as to fail then within a day or two make another prediction that also fails, so they are making multiple consecutive prophecies that fail. And the YouTube community praises them for their efforts in a thank you for keeping me on my toes way, and we love you for it. Stupid jackasses all of them. These idiots do not believe they are lying, they are just 'watchmen on the walls' (more like bulls shitting from the rooftops is more like it). To these morons there's a difference between a watchman and a liar you see. A liar is someone who does something wrong. A watchman is allowed to lie about God and fail in his holy name, and still have YouTube supporters, and be given donations and love and encouragement. A watchman gets his filthy asshole cleaned by hungry christian-pig tongues, so he doesn't ever need toilet paper. There is a woman who goes from one YouTube channel to another, from failure to failure encouraging these slimy false prophets.

"Bullshit. Fuck off assholes, lying useless Christian Pig failures. You failed in 2017. You will fail AGAIN in 2018."

NOTE: I got so disgusted with asking them to prove themselves I did something different. Instead of asking someone like Steve Fletcher to cut off this penis upon failure, I gave him many ways to get himself killed. Those comments in their entirety are now hidden in YouTube's archives as all comments for certain videos mainly about the June 21st 2018 rapture failure have been disabled and have disappeared. I was writing them so fast I never saved them all and I did not take screen shots. But here is are samples of what I can barely remember. Many are really cruel and nasty or intentionally bigoted for effect, and most are sure to get you brutally stomped in public or heinously murdered in private. Most are sure winners of literary awards, but I can forget about the Nobel peace prize.

NOTE: This link often accompanied many Anti-Lemming posts. The webpage in question involves a massive amount of failed end-of-the world predictions...

"http://www.bible.ca/pre-date-setters.htm"

NOTE: And now, some deadly advice on how to get oneself killed (posted on Steve's YT channel specifically, since he is such a wonderful human being and he simply does not listen as many, not just myself, have advised him to stop scamming people).

The following is called black humor for those unfamiliar with this genre. Steve removed my comments from his videos because to this vile idiot failure is a victory, and you can't have reminders floating around where people can see that you seriously fucked up...

"Take an electrical cord, cut it, fray it so the wires are exposed, plug it into an electrical outlet, and shove it up your ass."

"Stand outside a mosque and throw bibles at the Muslims"

"Go into a fried chicken establishment and yell, all niggers must die!"

"Walk into a German church and yell, I was only following orders!"

"Stand in front of the ASPCA and cut off a puppy's head"

"Go to sea world and stab a dolphin"

"Go into a Hindu Temple and piss on the idol"

"Rent a horse and ride it through the halls of an old people's home

"Go into a hospital emergency room, sit down near a Muslim family, proceed to tear pages out of the Koran, crumple them up into little balls and throw them at their heads"

"Got to Saudi Arabia and rape a cleric's wife"

"stick your head up your ass and eat your own shit"

"Go to Iran and walk down the street wrapped in an American flag"

NOTE: not all comments were mean-spirited, some were meant as humorous entries such as...

"Go to a synagogue and say, God is white and he is a Jew! Wait for someone to say thank you before turning and walking out."

NOTE: And now back to the mean stuff....

"Find a cactus and shove it up your ass, then disinfect your asshole

"Slide down a banister made of razor-blades"

"Join a satanist cult and betray them."

"Go to a morgue, lies down on a gurney, and drink cyanide"

"Redecorate the botanical gardens in Brooklyn with a flame-thrower"

"Go to Russia and find some drunks in a park, pour a bottle of vodka and you are all going to hell"

"Go into a biker bar and say, 'I am a prophet, the rapture is

"Buy a puppy, go to a dog-run in a park and smash the puppy's head

"Go up to some black kids standing on a corner and say, I'm selling

"Call the white house and tell them you have proof of Russian leak it to the NYT or CNN"

"Go up to a nun and grab her by the pussy"

"Walk up to a mean-looking lesbian and try to rape her"

"Stick your head up a cow's ass."

"When you meet Jesus, ask him, how many times did I lie about you?
[Because] I lost count"

"Go into a Muslim mosque and say, Jesus is coming back tonight, and if I am wrong you can cut off my penis!"

NOTE: There was so much more, a lot of it I think was pure gold, but now a lot of it is lost forever. Steve Fletcher just has no sense of humor. He completely forgets one important bible verse, "Jesus laughed." Steve is only happy when he is lying about God and his followers are licking his precious asshole for doing it. I think there's a slight chance that I don't like this idiot maybe.

NOTE: A lot of videos use photo-shopped disaster images, and even Hollywood clips from disaster films like "2012", to get their bullshit point across...

"Go to a hospital emergency room and tell them God gives you messages and see if they don't give you a nice clean bed to sleep on, a roof over your head, an even crazier than you roommate, three meals a day, midnight snacks, and injections of Haldol and Thorazine, and nice people you can talk to"

"Ever hear the biblical idea "No man will ever learn how it all began nor understand how it will all end"? The first part includes all the

The second part applies to you religious morons trying to figure out how the end will come. You will never figure it out (but you Rapture-Lemmings are too foolish to stop trying)"

NOTE: Some got this message on Failure Day...

"Oh no! It happened! The Christians are all gone! The church buildings disappeared too! It really happened! This is the end! It's horrible! I'm dying! I'm on fire! I'm drowning! I'm burning and I'm wet! How is that possible? Ahhhh! Ahhh! Ohhhh! Ahhhh! Cats and dogs are having sex and making human babies! I never thought I would see the day! The horror! The horror!"

"Scotty Clarke, Saturday the 23rd [Sept. 2017], you won the asshole of the year award. When you switched your bullshit rapture to Sunday the 24th you became eligible again. "Anyone that preaches or trusts in any rapture is officially a false prophet. You have lied in the name of the father and the son and in many cases lied about the holy spirit having given you confirmations and speaking to you. When Jesus said false prophets would come he was not kidding. Everybody watch out for these liars, their lying will only get worse and worse. Such is the case with blue heaven, Steve Fletcher and watchman for that Great Day, liars all of them. Scott Clarke switched his rapture date from Sept 23 to the 24th, showing us what a scumbag he really is. Beware of these people"

15.

"I found this comment. John did indeed set a rapture date in 2017. He lied and said he did not Watchman for that Great Day: RAPTURE will Happen BEFORE The 23 SEPT! East Coast Time, Between Sept. 19th starting at Precisely at 11:42:24 and Sept. 21 at 12:34 am !!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!! According to the Christ Angle, of 26.3 Degrees! Read Isa. 19:19-20!!!! The Great Pyramid of Giza is the ONLY THING THAT FITS THIS DESCRIPTION!!!!!! Call Me! Love YOUR Brother John B"

NOTE: John B., and Blue Heaven, and Steve Fletcher come as a trio of turds. I often referred to them as "the three stooges of false prophecy."

"Ephesians 5:11 Have nothing to do with the fruitless deeds of darkness, but rather expose them."

NOTE: Other names: John (Blood Moons) Hagee, Rody601616?, Steve Perry, David Wilkerson, Cindy Jacobs -- prophetic failures all of them.

"You rapture lemmings will not quit until you have made an absolute fool out of Jesus with all of your fake rapture dates. No other religion lies about their deity the way Christian-pigs do"

17.

"I have had dreams of Jesus returning but you don't see me saying they are messages from God and making psychotic video commentaries about my dreams. Go sign yourself into a mental ward and get help"

BANNED FROM YOUTUBE

NOTE: I had a dream once when Jesus came down on a cloud which landed in the middle of a city street and he stepped off it, when he walked nearer I saw he was a black man. But that was not as funny as my dream of an entire Japanese basketball team playing against one very tall black guy.

18.

"And then a great bullshitting came upon the earth, a Christian insanity regarding numerology, calculations and confirmations. And the people did dream dreams and the horseshit piled high in the churches. And even though their predictions failed they tried again and again and made a grand liar of God, thinking they were doing him and his kingdom a service. And there was no end to the nonsense until the world decided to chop off their filthy lying heads"

19.

NOTE: Proof the apostle Paul wanted another Christian to drop dead...

"2 Timothy 4:10: 'for Demas, because he loved this world, has deserted me and has gone to Thessalonica. Crescens has gone to Galatia, and Titus to Dalmatia.

1 Corinthians 5:5 hand this man over to Satan for the destruction of the flesh, so that his spirit may be saved on the day of the Lord'"

[this verse is often used to defend the OSAS theory - once saved always saved, i.e., you can never lose your salvation, only your reputation]

"Steve Cioccolanti, self-proclaimed prophet without [prophetic] proof, has admitted he had a vision of blood on his hands [whatever the fuck that means]. Do not sit at the same dinner table with this insane son-of-a-bitch. You never know what this crazy fuck is going to put in your food. Can anyone say Jim Jones and poison Kool-Aid?"

21.

NOTE: More deserved Pentecostal bashing...

"'Marjoe' (1972) a documentary film about a child preacher who knew how to fake speaking in tongues. His grifter parents taught him [how]. And they kept his money too. Right bastard con-artists."

"HEAR YE HEAR YE, HEAR NOW THE NEWS, SATANIC BELIEVER IN ANCIENT PYRAMID STRUCTURE (ASSOCIATE OF STEVE FLETCHER AND BLUE HEAVEN AND BARRY SCARBOROUGH) PREDICTS THE RETURN OF JESUS CHRIST. DEVIL WORSHIPER "watchman for that great day" SAYS HE KNOWS JESUS WILL RETURN ON SEPTEMBER 20TH OF 2017 (at 5:42:333 Cairo time.) THIS OCCULT PREACHER ALSO CLAIMS TO REPRESENT THE GOD OF CHRISTIANITY TOO. YOU CAN'T MAKE UP THIS KIND OF CRAZY BAT- SHIT, BUG-FUCKED APE-SHIT INSANITY. UPDATE: WATCHMAN HAS NOW RETRACTED HIS PREDICTION AND CLAIMS HE NEVER SET A DATE, MUCH TO THE DISAPPOINTMENT OF HIS CHRISTIAN-PIG FOLLOWERS."

NOTE: I had some back-and-forths with some of John's idiot followers, and when this asshole changed his tune concerning his date they never spoke to me again. But then I turned out to be right, he cannot be trusted since he is a liar, and they were assholes and idiots for trusting him. As I often say,

"a scumbag is a scumbag is a scumbag."

And they didn't even apologize to me when John actually abandoned his Rapture Date. How rude. Just because I call you bug-fuck insane and stupid assholes does not mean I don't deserve an apology, for you calling me the lying unbeliever.

24.

NOTE: One of my meanest...

"A drunk Christian goes into a gay bar to take a piss. He comes out of the bathroom and says, "Hey, there's penises sticking out of holes in the walls in there. You should fumigate." After he is gone the bartender says, "Mother of Mary, wall-to-wall cock in there and all she can do is cry cock-roach"

25.

NOTE: You can never prove to a Rapture-Lemming that lying is worthy of hell fire/damnation, in other words the Bible is to be ignored whenever it fits their bullshit agenda...

The Book of the Revelation: "But the fearful, and unbelieving, and the abominable, and murderers, and whore-mongers, and sorcerers, and idolaters, and all LIARS, shall have their part in the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone, which is the second death."

NOTE: Years ago, I went around with a button on my chest that read "the second death is coming" and was rebuked by a deacon for embarrassing the church. So it's not like I don't understand what fanaticism is.

"I once knew a rapture date-setter, who was something of a bed wetter, he drowned in his shame, his piss was to blame, or so said his suicide letter"

NOTE: The joke that gave birth to many other biker references...

"A false prophet walks into a biker bar and says out loud, " I am a prophet. Tomorrow is the Rapture at 5 pm. I will go to heaven and you will all go to hell." A biker says, "Come back tomorrow, we want to see you disappear." "Ok," says the false prophet. The next day he returns at 4:30 pm. they all wait. 5 pm comes and nothing happens. He does not disappear. They grab him and gang rape him on a pool table.

I hereby give permission for any insane person, Muslim terrorist, follower of Satan, street gang, homeless psycho, etc, to track me down and cut off my genitals. 10 reasons date-setting fools will be cast into hell:

1. Your predictions always fail
2. You are morons
3. Most of you rapture-lemmings are only in it for the money
4. You are in love with lies
5. You wouldn't know truth of it sat on your head
6. You've been involved in previous rapture failures
7. If you tell continuous lies about god you are not saved
8. You have excuses for failure already set up in advance
9. You refuse to give up your houses and all your money to people who think you will fail and stick a legitimate [RAPTURE] contract under your nose
10. You are liars. Next stop hell

"Sorry, there will be no rapture. No start of an unholy tribulation against mankind and safety for you. Not yet. The Lord remains seated at the right hand of God and he will not move until the Father tells him its time. Whatever will he do to the rapture-lemmings who lied about him and his father?"

35.

NOTE: Many who believe there is a real actual hell never responded to this comment. Not that I don't believe in hell, I really don't know. I'm just saying there is cause to believe no such thing exists..

"In the old testament it says God was against those who lived in Canaan because they put their children through the fire, burnt them alive. Something that would not even enter the mind of god to do. So how is it if such evil cannot enter God's holy and pure mind, god gets the idea to send millions of people to hell for all eternity, never to escape, to burn forever and ever in eternal torment and agony? How did we get from unable to think about it at all to I'm gonna throw you all into hot fire for all eternity? Go on genius, explain it to us"

"If you promote star signs and dreams and confirmations, using them to interpret the book of revelation then you have added words and ideas to the book. Expect the plagues and sufferings to be added to your soon to be miserable little life. You disobeyed the command not to add words and you must suffer according to the book's curses placed men. Others, like Christian publishers, are busy removing words from it while you are busy adding words to it. Star signs are a test to see if you will add them to the message of revelation. You have failed that test. Don't expect rapture and happiness. Expect suffering and death. Prepare for the plagues. That's all you have to look forward to. You added words and ideas to the book of revelation. You failed the test that God put before you. The plagues of revelation are all you have now so forget the rapture. Doom is coming your way Christian-pigs"

NOTE: For those who try to use bible chapters and verses as numerical prophetic markers. To show how they won't even stick to their own theological rules...

"Stephen Langton, Bishop of Canterbury, 13th century, added chapter and verses to bible. He was a Catholic. Yet the date-setters are using this bishop as part of their calculations for the rapture [such as the 5777th verse* of the bible. Do some research if you want to know more about this]. So a Catholic bishop is a genuine [Numerical] prophet? The Pope chooses priests. Usually according to many protestants all Catholics are lost and going to hell"

"Jesus is not God. Jesus became sin on the cross. God cannot sin. In him there is no sin, no darkness. It was his son, born of a woman, that died on the cross. It was not God who died on the cross. Just because the Catholics invented and taught the trinity for centuries. And the Protestants bought the lie does not make it true. "The father the son and the holy ghost, these three are one" was added to Peter's epistles and does not exist in the earliest new testament manuscripts. The Catholics added the idea of a trinity to the bible. And the Protestants kept the tradition alive and it was all a lie all along. Jesus can still be the messiah without being God, he can still be the lamb of God without being God, he can still be mankind's savior without being God, Jesus can still be anointed by God without being God. The divinity of Jesus has been added as an extra requirement of the gospel. The gospel is the death burial resurrection, not an added divinity. This is a different gospel other than the one handed down by the apostles. You Christian pigs have believed in a fake Jesus your whole lives. The cross cancels the trinity. "Why do the wicked still live, Continue on, also become very powerful? They see their children established around them, their offspring before their eyes. Their homes are safe and free from fear; the rod of God is not on them. Their bulls never fail to breed; their cows calve and do not miscarry. They send forth their children as a flock; their little ones dance about. They sing to the music of timbrel and lyre; they make merry to the sound of the pipe. They spend their years in prosperity and go down to the grave in peace. Yet they say to God, Leave us alone! We have no desire to know your ways. Who is the Almighty, that we should serve him? What would we gain by praying to him? But their prosperity is not in their own hands, so I stand aloof from the plans of the wicked. Yet how often is the lamp of the wicked snuffed out? How often does calamity come upon them, the fate God allots in his anger? How often are they like straw before the wind, like chaff swept away by a gale? It is said, God stores up the punishment of the wicked for their children. Let him repay the wicked, so that they themselves will experience it! Let their own eyes see their destruction; let them drink the cup of the wrath of the Almighty. For what do they care about the families they leave behind when their allotted months come to an end? One person dies in full vigor, completely secure and at ease, well nourished in body, bones rich with marrow. Another dies in bitterness of soul, never having enjoyed anything good. Side by side they lie in the dust, and worms cover them both. "I know full well what you are thinking, the schemes by which you would wrong me. You say, Where now is the house of the great, the tents where the wicked lived? Have you never questioned those who travel? Have you paid no regard to their accounts--that the wicked are spared from the day of calamity, that they are delivered from the day of wrath? Who denounces their conduct to their face? Who repays them for what they have done? They are carried to the grave, and watch is kept over their tombs. The soil in the valley is sweet to them; everyone follows after them, and a countless throng goes before them. So how can you console me with your nonsense? Nothing is left of your answers but falsehood!*"

"If you promote star signs and dreams and confirmations, using them to interpret the book of revelation then you have added words and ideas to the book. Expect the plagues and sufferings to be added to your soon to be miserable little life. You disobeyed the command not to add words and you must suffer according to the book's curses placed men. Others, like Christian publishers, are busy removing words from it while you are busy adding words to it. Star signs are a test to see if you will add them to the message of revelation. You have failed that test. Don't expect rapture and happiness. Expect suffering and death. Prepare for the plagues. That's all you have to look forward to. You added words and ideas to the book of revelation. You failed the test that God put before you. The plagues of Revelation are all you have now so forget the Rapture. You are wrong. You blaspheme. God will never hear a blasphemous prayer. Just because you and the Catholics invented and taught the trinity for centuries does not make it true. The Catholics added the idea of a trinity to the bible. And you idiots kept the tradition alive and it was all a lie all along. "Amazing lies how sweet their sound, that cursed a wretch like me, I once was found but now am lost, believed but disagree. When Jesus said that he'd return unexpectedly, I tossed his words in the garbage can, and on them I did pee. "If you promote star signs and dreams and confirmations, using them to interpret the book of revelation then you have added words and ideas to the book. Expect the plagues and sufferings to be added to your soon to be miserable little life. You disobeyed the command not to add words and you must suffer according to the book's curses placed men. Others, like Christian publishers, are busy removing words from it while you are busy adding words to it. Star signs are a test to see if you will add them to the message of revelation. You have failed that test. Don't expect rapture and happiness. Expect suffering and death. Prepare for the plagues. That's all you have to look forward to. You added words and ideas to the book of revelation. You failed the test that God put before you. The plagues of revelation are all you have Now so forget the rapture. Doom is coming your way Christian-pigs"

"The rapture is the resurrection split into two events. It is a lie that they are separate. Jesus will not return twice. There will be no peek-a-boo appearance. We will go through the tribulation and those still alive will be taken up after its over. The signs in the sky are a test like the tree of the knowledge of good and evil in the Garden of Eden likes to test his people to see if they will obey. You have failed the test and have have broken your promise to wait for him by spreading lies that he is coming soon. When your predictions fail you are a liar. Do not expect to enter God's kingdom. God does not rapture liars that have told lies about his son. He does not rapture false prophets and accept them at his great dinner. You're fooling yourselves. Christ returns when we least expect it. This is the true rapture. Unexpected. No date-setting. Just leave it to god and wait. You have second-guessed god and this is a great sin. Lying about Jesus is a great sin. It is a great evil that is in your hearts. When

"Jesus is not God. Jesus became sin on the cross. God cannot sin. In him there is no sin, no darkness. It was his son, born of a woman, that died on the cross. It was not God who died on the cross. Just because the Catholics invented and taught the trinity for centuries.

BANNED FROM YOUTUBE

And the Protestants bought the lie does not make it true. "The father the son and the holy ghost, these three are one" was added to Peter's epistles and does not exist in the earliest new testament manuscripts. The Catholics added the idea of a trinity to the bible. And the Protestants kept the tradition alive and it was all a lie all along. Jesus can still be the messiah without being God, he can still be the lamb of God without being God, he can still be mankind's savior without being God, Jesus can still be anointed by God without being God. The divinity of Jesus has been added as an extra requirement of the gospel. The gospel is the death burial resurrection, not an added divinity. This is a different gospel other than the one handed down by the apostles. You Christian pigs have believed in a fake Jesus your whole lives. The cross cancels the trinity. Have nothing to do with such people. They are the kind who worm their way into homes and gain control over gullible women, who are loaded down with sins and are swayed by all kinds of evil desires, always learning but never able to come to a knowledge of the truth. Furthermore, Satan will step in and communicate with you making matters worse. The great falling away. We will be betrayed by the members of our own households, our own churches, they will betray us to the new world order and we will be killed by beheading. Yes many will lose their faith. Good will fall. Its inevitable. Good will lose everything.

All three disappear and the end comes. This is the only success you have coming. Bleak yes but that's the final story. I like your optimism but Jesus has more truth in him than you. The worst one being the highly annoying dinner murder mystery episode. That was so lame. Anyway, you start the series with individual tales, then end it with the long story. MY REVIEW OF THE FOREST, OR THE MOVIE I WISH I HAD SEEN

"I watched that scene again and again where the sister says, "You want this baby that much?" And she does a Linda Blair on the baby's head and says, "you can have it." And she tosses the baby to the other sister who catches it by one leg and throws it so it smashed through a glass window. "I don't want no dead fucking baby. What the fuck is wrong with you? Is your brain the size of a pea?"

I like the part where the zombie's arm broke through the wall and grabbed one of the girl's hair. And the other girl said, "The hair stylist is here!" I cried when they sawed the baby in half and each girl got to keep their half. Leave me alone I'm a sucker for happy endings.

I had a lump in my throat when the guy raped the girl because the human race cannot continue without caveman sentiments. Leave me alone, I'm a sucker for romantic movies; so is Harvey Weinstein.

I like the part where they accidentally run over a hitchhiker and put him in the back seat and you can hear his broken bones like celery being snapped in half like ten times. They are driving to the hospital and the guy wakes up screaming like his dick is on fire. He grabs the fathers head and rips it right off his body. The arms are still steering the car. His foot hits the gas pedal and the car swerved into a tree. Bounces off and goes over a cliff into a small river. The dead hitchhiker is seen floating down the river holding his own head like a football. Quietly he mumbles, "Touchdown." That was cool.

I like the part where they are walking through the woods and run into Hillary Clinton who is carrying a shovel. They take a few selfies with her. She says, "I'll have you both audited by the IRS if you tell anyone you saw me here today." And they say, "But we got pictures." And Hillary says, "Gimme the camera I'm gonna erase those."

But you will have no such luck. The game is designed to bore you and frustrate you. The game exists to make your life meaningless. It exists to waste your precious time. Life is too short to indulge in this kind of Horseshit. You are better off trying to learn unreal engine which is close to impossible in and of itself but at least your trying to do something that might not turn out to be a big waste of fucking time if you can succeed at mastering it in some small way. It is true the opening sequence, that is following the joker into the asylum is a cool cinematic experience and worth the price of admission but only if you bought the game used at game stop. Its not worth the full price. If the whole game had been like its opening sequence, hell, I would have been satisfied following the characters anywhere they went. But you will get no such satisfaction. You will use "detective mode" to look for things and you don't even know what the fuck you're supposed to be looking for. Play Arkham city instead,

You won't know what to do, How to do away with enemies, or save hostages. Say goodbye to your peace of mind, if you ever had any to begin with. These game makers should at least assume people who begin playing their games already have some measure of peace of mind and do not want their peace ruined by a stupid fucking video-game. Or perhaps they already know and ruining our peace of heart and soul and mind is the reason why they makes these shitty games? What's going on here is the Douglas Adams syndrome, when he made the Starship Titanic video game only he knew how to solve the puzzles, the audience was excluded and was not privy to the answers. You had to buy the game guide booklet to get the answers. In order to find an object you had to toss a TV set over a guard rail then go down to the bottom of the stairs where the TV set was in pieces to retrieve the object. Holy shit. How were we supposed to figure that out? The s.o.b. made the game only for himself. Almost glad the fucker died and is buried. But that's how it goes."

My take on the film, "Into the Woods", or how it could have been more interesting than people just being worried about their phones being dead and their microwaves don't work anymore ...

"I watched that scene again and again where the sister says, "you want this baby that much?" And she does a Linda Blair on the baby's head and says, "you can have it." And she tosses the baby to the other sister who catches it by one leg and throws it so it smashed through a glass window. " I don't want no dead fucking baby. What the Fuck is wrong with you? Is your brain the size of a pea?"

I like the part where the zombie's arm broke through the wall and grabbed one of the girl's hair. And the other girl said, "The hair stylist is here!" I cried when they sawed the baby in half and each girl got to keep their half. Leave me alone I'm a sucker for happy endings.

I had a lump in my throat when the guy raped the girl because the human race cannot continue without caveman sentiments. Leave me alone, I'm a sucker for romantic movies. So is Harvey Weinstein.

I like the part where they accidentally run over a hitchhiker and put him in the back seat and you can hear his broken bones like celery being snapped in half like ten times. They are driving to the hospital and the guy wakes up screaming like his dick is on fire. He grabs the fathers head and rips it right off his body. The arms are still steering the car. His foot hits the gas pedal and the car swerved into a tree. Bounces off and goes over a cliff into a small river. The dead hitchhiker is seen floating down the river holding his own head like a football. Quietly he mumbles, "Touchdown." That was cool.

I like the part where they are walking through the woods and run into Hillary Clinton who is carrying a shovel. They take a few selfies with her. She says, I'll have you both audited by the IRS if you tell anyone you saw me here today. And they say but we got pictures. And Hillary says gimme the camera I'm gonna erase those.

George had ideas for nine movies but Disney cut that cord. There is now no continuity. Disney can partially fix this problem by having three separate science fiction authors* write a trilogy of novels based on [George] Lucas's ideas. It would be a nice gesture of reconciliation with the fans. A wonderful gift. A nice way to say we do respect the source material, and the original creator. A single consistent book editor of all three would be nice, that book editor would help set the tone and voice of the series so it has consistency. "Minecraft story mode 1-8. It's bad enough you have to walk on top of maze walls and craft absolute nonsense. Its bad enough the tales are often lame and annoying, the characters are creepy and ugly. Then you have to deal with the game freezing during auto-saves, so you have to eject the disc entirely and restart the level, taking you where you left off but often several steps before you left off. Then you have a story that goes up to episode 4 or 5. The last 3 episodes are 3 separate standalone tales only slightly connected by some portal traveling. The worst one being the highly annoying dinner murder mystery episode. That was so lame. Anyway, you start the series with individual tales, then end it with the long story. These guys do it the opposite way, start off with a long story and graduate to several shorts. One of the few games that is actually not impossible to complete however. So many games out there are impossible"

George had ideas for nine movies but Disney cut that cord. There is now no continuity. Disney can partially fix this problem by having three separate science fiction authors* write a trilogy of novels based on Lucas's ideas. It would be a nice gesture of reconciliation with the fans. A wonderful gift. A nice way to say we do respect the source material, and the original creator. Release one book every month in a three month period, which is the kind of marketing thing Lucas would do. They'll make their money back if the books are good. A single consistent book editor of all three would be nice, that book editor would help set the tone and voice of the series so it has consistency. Having Lucas read drafts and offer creative advice on rewrites would give the products even more credibility. the reason why I say 3 (co-)authors is to have the overall project finished in a shorter period of time. And I mean well-known tried and proven authors, and real stars wars fans. Each author having some kind of limited say in the other books would be excellent so the collection feels more like a collaboration. You can have Lucas write brief introductions to each book. And you can have directors of other star wars projects, cartoons, comic books, video games, write exclusive afterwords, this would give the books an added sense of novelty. Of course they have to sign non-disclosure agreements"

"The small fat crazy lady moved through the crowd. Her goal was to reach the president and kill him before he was sworn in. An evil smile was on her face. Her hand reached into her pocket and gripped her weapon tightly. A slight tender breeze infiltrated the hood around her head and forced her long black hair to tickle her cheeks. She could feel the fear and adrenaline start to rush through her like tortured baby life-blood. She would pull back her hood and reveal her identity just before striking the death blow. "Move out my way," she said, but softly so as not to draw attention. "How's it going," said another. The black haired assassin recognized the voice. "Not now, I'm focused, can't be distracted. You do your thing and I'll do mine. Bug off." "Okay," said the other woman assassin. "You're the boss. Remember this was all your idea." "I said bug off, I need to concentrate, or I might fail." The other woman moved off, disappearing into the crowd, most of whom were trump supporters, and this made black hair very angry. She was close. She tried to ignore the waving flags that were all around, and they turned into a blur of red which made her happy because it reminded her of blood. When the blurs were white it reminded her of bones and tombs. When the blurs were blue she recalled bruises on the faces of little children. She heard the president's voice, "We will continue to make America great!" Some were chanting "four more years" and the idea that he would serve a third term against all existing laws made her face turn all kinds of colors. If anyone could see past the hood they would have said look at that fucking rainbow lady! He was near. Her chance was now. She pulled back her hood revealing her face to the entire crowd at the rally. "It's Rosie O'Donnel!" exclaimed a man." "They let her out of the nuthouse?" said a woman. "I thought she was in jail," said another woman. "Hey, wig!" screamed Rosie. Someone else had gotten attention. A red headed woman was holding up a severed head of RoboCop. "It's Kathy Griffin!" exclaimed a fat man in the crowd wearing a Bill is a Rapist t-shirt. Rosie yelled, "Nyet, motherfucker, nyet!!" And pulled out a can of silly string and began spraying the president. Likewise Kathy Griffin sprayed him with silly string. Then another woman sprayed silly string from yet another position in the crowd. "Meryl Streep!" exclaimed a teenager. And yet another. "Madonna!" And another. "Miley Cyrus!" And another." "Katie Perry!" All of them were brought down by secret service or mean looking bikers or tackled by nerds with red hats. When it was all over and Trump had been dragged to safety all of the women were cuffed inside a paddy wagon. "He didn't have a heart attack! What happened to the fucking heart attack?" EXTRAS

(some items I never got to post, or things that wont fit anywhere else or some new material)

NOTE: These lyrics are not about any one specific celeb, it's about wanting to be rich and famous in general. But i did have some celebs in mind when I wrote it...I won't say who.

THE SUPER-(FALLING)-STAR

So you are a superstar
but we don't really know who you are
yet we know what you want to be
--the focus of idolatry

So you bought a brand new car so you can travel very far from shining sea to shining sea
fucked photo-op psychology

So you are a sight to see illusion of equality
metaphors of every man
with a hundred-million fans

I paint a picture of you it shows your colors so true
Your smile is fading fast
the oils are melting glass

BANNED FROM YOUTUBE

I saw a image of blinding light that showed a sun in wildest bright and you were standing there too
no one was there with you

To whom did you promise your soul?
Was losing faith your bitter goal?
You work and sweat with all your might
But does love wait for you at night?

How will not Hell find you?
when you're so much untrue
you should go an d stand in line weeping over all your crimes

But if they saw behind your mask a thousand questions they would ask did you sign your name in red?
have you hope among the dead?

So you want me to pay to see so they can get a hold of me and you want me to spread the word of everything I saw and heard

So you are a superstar
but we don't really know who you are
yet we know what you want to be
--the focus of idolatry

NOTE: Yes, there is a melody that goes with this but I dont think it's original and might be something I've heard before.

"It makes no difference. I make a 3d model and can't decide where to 3.

"Public school education is designed to keep you from finding out what life is really about, oh, yeah and to give your parents a break from your bullshit"

4.

NOTE: What little do I know about computer-software maintenance...

"As far as programs crashing are concerned, every action, every mouse movement, every keystroke, every save of a file uses up memory and it all piles up like suitcases in a closet. Shutting down the program say every half hour, restarting it frees up memory and you are good to go again. Restarting the computer often also helps. Leave the crashing to the operating system. If blender or any program starts to feel sluggish chances are its about ready to freeze. You save your work and shut it down then start up again, fresh and new. Until they create floating memory inside bubbles of crystal ice cubes that allow fluidity of data-flow (and I'm just making this shit up), we don't have much choice but to restart often. Maybe it's time to install a free timer that tells you to shut it down every 30 minutes. We tend to fight such limitations but there is no other way"

[Did you know that defragging your computer fragments files on your computer? And that when you do a Disk Repair - temporary files are created for doing exactly that, which take up needed space on your hard drive? How can we possibly win against such nefarious schemes?]

NOTE: Unreal Engine...

"It took a long time for me to understand how to get UDK running at all. The main executable is located in the bin folder and it is not called udk.exe, it is called udkLift.exe. Who thought this was a fucking good idea? If all you wanted was to be different, congratulations you are different. Now fuck off. If windows' start button flakes on you, you will not find the menu for udk. You have to go digging in the root folder, which is not installed by default into your Programs folder, it will be on your C-drive. WTF? Go to bin. You make a shortcut of udkLift.exe to the desktop. But double clicking it will not let you open the editor, it will send you to sample games.

You have to right click to open properties then re-write "udkLift.exe(space key)editor" into the available field. Click Apply Then okay. Whose fucking bright idea was this? What kind of sadist makes starting up the program so difficult? What horse riding idiot thought this up? Who creates a product then names it something unrelated? Creating an actual floor is a whole new wrestling with unreality. Without a video tutorial or tutorial book you don't stand a chance. Basically the engine is shit. It takes spending money on tutorial dvd's or taking courses to figure it out. I guess you have to make your money somehow. YouTube videos are good, be sure to download as many as you can. And good luck if you only have only 2 GB of memory, UDK will be very slow and freeze quite often. You will lose work and want to fall on a sword"

NOTE: I don't remember what this conversation was about. Most likely about cheating...

"No cheating. No need to. I never even cheated in school on tests. Never. I wanted My successes to be mine entirely and that comes with great failure, mine all mine. My grades were shit. But I still have my integrity. And I still graduated. My high school diploma has a "with merit" medal on it, even though my grades were usually barely passing. I experienced almost no guilt in this regard, sure felt guilty about not being smarter than others but I felt honest. And what I did succeed at was always entirely genuine. I rarely ever fucked around in class and wasted anybody's time. I never disrespected a teacher after my fifth grade incident. Don't ask. NOTE: I wasn't always criticizing and insulting. I did actually offer help or advice to people on occasion, often it was computer related..

"What I do is either create my own start-up item, a checkerboard plane already sliced and save that as default. Blender will always open with a default saved environment. Or I save an empty space as default with whatever windows I want open off to the sides. The minute I start up the program there is no default cube, there is nothing, and I can add or import anything I want. I also name the file "empty grid" or "checker-grid" and save it in the root folder so I can always open it if the default settings get changed by accident. I also append the version of blender I created the file with in the description. For example 'empty-grid-v276a.blend', Or "Suzanne head-w-texs-v249b.blend. I also add versions of the file and various other descriptions such as texs (textured model), v meaning version as in "-v1". Or if I want to emphasize where something came from I add the model type to the file name as in 'house-3rdPartyOBJ-v1-v279b.blend' All this helps to know what things are. Also know that it is possible to link and import an object from a newer version of blender to an older version but you might lose some information. For example the model might not have any faces. But the vertices are all there. You can select all vertices and press f to create faces, choosing 'create fgon' usually works. Images link well, and photos can usually be imported to earlier versions without much hassle. I work a lot in version 249.2 so these methods are important to me. Learning the newer versions of blender is like learning to drive in America then being told you have to move to Europe and learn to drive on the opposite side of the road."

FINAL NOTES:

Do I want my YouTube account to be reactivated? No, I do not. Posting comments is severely exhausting. I don't really want to go back to commenting. YouTube has done me a favor by banishing me. I will try to learn to be content with having very little.

I also learned something I now believe to be true. Lying is easy and requires less energy than speaking truth. Doing what is good and right requires more energy and strength than doing evil. Anger, hate, and deceit are easy energy builders. This is why the Rapture-Lemmings and the Democrats can lie so easily with strength and without seeming end. The rewards of lying are immediate: You can receive love, admiration, and money if you lie excellently. Liars are energy-vampires who take and take and take and drink all of the life-blood of the innocent. Speaking truth can drain you of life-force, ruin your health, and destroy your well-being. Truth can suck you dry of all enthusiasm for life.

I did not compile this bile to win the Nobel Peace Prize, that award is for people who bomb hospitals, lie about being able to keep your doctor, and give millions to terrorist regimes.
